India's designated number 4 Iyer, whose fitness came under the scanner in the Asia Cup even though he was coming back from a long injury-lay off, has not been able to get time in the middle due to different reasons. While a back spasm ruled him out of the business end of Asia Cup, an avoidable run out on Friday ended his nervy 8-ball stay in the centre. Ashwin, on the other hand, came up with a tidy bowling effort in his comeback game but was not able to put the Australian batters in much discomfort on a flat track.

Socially Team LatestLY | Sep 27, 2023 01:16 PM IST India would head into the third ODI against Australia with an aim to clinch a whitewash. The Men in Blue rode on a power-packed batting performance boosted by centuries from Shubman Gill and Shreyas Iyer as they beat Australia by 99 runs in the second ODI of the series. This third and final match would be played at the Saurashtra Cricket Association stadium in Rajkot and it will begin at 1:30 pm IST (Indian Standard Time).

Skipper KL Rahul (58 not out) and Suryakumar Yadav (50) also struck fifties each. For the second ODI, team India will hope that Shreyas Iyer scores some runs after he missed out on a flat track in Mohali. R Ashwin who was roped in place of injured Axar Patel will also look to take wickets in the middle overs. According to PTI, rain in Indore has brought the temperature down which will be welcomed by the players from either side after experiencing unusual heat and humidity in Mohali. The game on Friday had enough positives for India, mainly the performance of Mohammad Shami and Suryakumar Yadav, but few questions still need to be answered ahead of the World Cup, beginning October 5.
